Pan American Airways Is Hit by Strike

By JOSEPH R. COYNE
WASHINGTON (AP) —Pan American Airways was hit early today by an AFL-CIO Transport Workers Union strike after a breakdown in negotiations aimed at averting a walkout of some 12,000 employees. A federal mediator said negotiations had reached an "insurmountable impasse."

Union members began walking off the job within an hour after negotiations between union and management leaders broke off. Picket lines were set up at Pan American bases on both coasts.

The company said in advance of the walkout that a strike probably would ground all its flights. Its planes carry about 17,000 persons daily.

The union is seeking a 15 per cent pay raise, improved vacations, a shorter work week and other fringe benefits for the maintenance, ground service employees and flight service personnel it represents.

About 1,100 to 1,200 employees walked off their jobs at 2:15 a.m. at New York's John F. Kennedy International Airport, the union said.

About the same time, the union called 2,500 of its members off their jobs on the Pacific Coast and Hawaii. About 150 pickets marched in Miami, the union said.

Solution Sought by Committee

By IRWIN FRANK
ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Credentials committee members resume their search today for some way of seating a Mississippi delegation for the second session of the Democratic National Convention.

The first night of the convention ended without a member of the mostly Negro Mississippi Freedom Democratic party or the regular Democrats, an all-white group, taking delegate seats. Both groups were barred because the credentials committee had failed to resolve its most difficult problem.

The committee did give both groups guest tickets. Some of the Mississippi people used these to get into the hall.

Every delegate from Alabama, those who took a loyalty oath and those who refused, took their seats. They kept them after repeated polite orders from convention officials that those had not signed a loyalty pledge must "step aside."

"Step aside" meant getting out of the seats. The unpledged delegates about 32 — said they would leave the hall if ordered to do so, but they would not give up their seats.

They were not ordered to leave.

No one with authority could say what would happen tonight when the Alabama delegates try to take their seats for a second session. No one seemed to know how the credentials committee would resolve the Mississippi dispute.

The Mississippi regulars feel the Freedom Democrat are a rump group that has no legal status.

Negroes claim the regulars exclude Negroes from their party and would not support the Democratic ticket.

Peacemakers Leave for Talks

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — President Makarios of Cyprus flew here today from Nicosia and met Premier George Papandreu in what appeared to be an effort to iron out differences between them.

Makarios was invited here by the Athens government only a few hours after Cyprus Foreign Minister Spyros Kyprianou and Papandreu conferred.

Kyprianou came out of the meeting Monday night talking about "complete independence" for Cyprus while Papandreu said "enosis (union with Greece) is the natural solution."

Small Town But a Big Problem

PLUMERVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The community of Plumerville, about 14 miles west of Conway, found itself with a king-sized problem this weekend.

It had a 50,000 gallon water tank but no way to pump water to it. The town well had plenty of water, but when the pump broke Saturday it had to be taken to Stuttgart for repairs.

The same day, though, a Conway dairy came to the aid of its neighbors with a 3,000 gallon capacity tank truck.

Since then, town officials have made midnight runs to Conway and Morrilton for water, which is lifted into the big gravity tank with the pump on a town fire truck.

Officials are hoping the repaired pump is back by Wednesday.

Big Railway Merger Is Approved

WASHINGTON (AP) — An examiner has recommended that the Interstate Commerce Commission approve the unification of five railroads into the nation's largest system — nearly 25,000 miles.

The proposal approved Monday by examiner Robert H. Murphy calls for the merger of four lines — the Great Northern Railway, the Northern Pacific Railway, the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad and the Pacific Coast Railroad — and a 10-year lease on the Spokane, Portland and Seattle Railway.

If approved by the full commission, the combined system — to be known as the Great Northern Pacific & Burlington Lines, Inc. — would have assets of more than $2.6 billion and annual income of more than $775 million.

Murphy said the system would be the largest railroad in the United States in terms of miles of road and geographic distribution, and the third largest in annual revenues.

He recommended a number of conditions that would require maintenance of open routes, gateways and channels of trade; the opening of important new gateways to competing railroads; and protection of adversely affected railroad employees.

Murphy's recommendations were denounced in Cleveland, Ohio, by H. E. Gilbert, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, who called the decision "another victory for monopoly interests."

"The recommended merger," Gilbert said in a statement, "would be a surrender to the financial interests that seek greater profit from minimum service, jobs will be cut by at least 30 per cent and many communities will find themselves with either no rail service or relegated to branch line status."

Kennedy to Become a Candidate

By JOHN MORGANTHALER
NEW YORK (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy officially becomes a candidate for the Democratic nomination for U.S. senator from New York today.

He will make his announcement at a joint news conference with Mayor Robert F. Wagner in New York, Wagner said in Atlantic City, N.J., Monday night.

Wagner said he and Kennedy will fly to Atlantic City tonight for a reception, to be attended by most New York Democrats attending the party's national convention there.

Kennedy has rented a $300,000 mansion on Long Island starting Sept. 1, and has hired Debs Myers, Wagner's former executive secretary, to handle campaign public relations.

Republican Sen. Kenneth B. Keating previously announced his candidacy for re-election.

Clare Boothe Luce, former congresswoman from Connecticut and ambassador to Italy, has said she will accept the Conservative party nomination if it is offered.

The Republicans and Conservatives nominate candidates at separate conventions next Monday. The Democratic state convention will be held Tuesday.

Kennedy and Keating are considered cinches for nomination.

NFO Action Sends Price of Meat Up

By CHAD SKAGGS
CORNING, Iowa (AP) — Housewives were paying higher prices for meat in some cities today as the National Farmers Organization continued to withhold cattle from markets in 23 states.

Meat on the hoof was bringing the highest prices in more than a year for those who did sell.

However, receipts were down at major markets as the holding action entered its fifth day. Midwest packing plants were laying off employees.

NFO President Oren Lee Staley at the organization's national headquarters here said retail price increases at this stage would be unjustified.

He said it appeared that "retail outlets will take unfair advantage of the situation and raise prices toward the end of the week."

Sporadic incidents of violence occurred as truckers tried to deliver meat animals despite the holding action.

At Duluth, Minn., retailers said fresh beef and pork cuts were up as much as 10 cents a pound.

LBJ Hesitates to Pick Humphrey Over Stiff Opposition of South

Middle of Road Platform Comes Up Tues. Night

By JOHN CHADWICK
ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — A middle-road platform that largely reflects President Johnson's desire not to rock the boat goes before the Democratic National Convention tonight. Approval is expected, with no floor fight in prospect over any of the planks.

Members of the platform committee finished their work late Monday, turning out a document that for the most part affirms present administration policies and promises to improve and expand them rather than break new ground.

On the three issues that Republicans battled over at their convention last month — civil rights, extremism and control of nuclear weapons — the Democratic platform drafters drew clear-cut issues for the coming campaign.

The Republicans, adhering to the wishes of Sen. Barry Goldwater, their presidential candidate, were silent on "extremism" and control of nuclear arms. But not the Democrats.

"We condemn extremism, whether from the right or left, including the extreme tactics of such organizations as the Ku Klux Klan and the John Birch Society," the Democratic platform says.

As for nuclear weapons, it declares that control over their use must continue to rest solely in the hands of the President.

On the divisive civil rights issue, the Democrats wrote a plank that the Southerners on the platform committee said they could go along with and that one of them, Pierre Pelham of Alabama, called "something of a victory for the South."

It declares that "the Civil Rights Act of 1964 deserves and requires full observance by every American and fair, effective enforcement if there is any default."

The committee chairman, Oklahoma Rep. Carl Albert, said this means that if the comprehensive antidiscrimination measure is not complied with, it will be enforced.

The Republican platform avoided use of the word "enforce" but pledged "full implementation and faithful execution" of the new law, which Goldwater voted against on the ground that two of its key sections are unconstitutional.

However, the Republicans promised to support improvements in existing civil rights laws.

Mississippi Issue Remains Undecided

By JACK BELL
ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — President Johnson was reported hesitating today over the possible choice of Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey as his running mate because of Southern opposition.

The Democratic National Convention, heading into its second formal session with the issue of seating a Mississippi delegation unsolved, still had no word from its White House headquarters about the President's preference for a vice presidential nominee.

Minnesota's Humphrey, who was everywhere doing everything he could to prevent any incident that would mar the unity that Johnson wanted achieved, was the consensus choice by leading Democrats for the place. But individually and collectively they conceded they don't have an inkling of Johnson's thinking.

Some dissent to the choice of Humphrey had been communicated to Johnson, lending credence to reports that he still had not made up his mind despite the relatively late hour.

Gov. Carl Sanders of Georgia, on whom Johnson has been leaning heavily in his efforts to salvage part of the South in the November election, said in an interview he had told Johnson at a white delegation chosen with urgency he thought Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy might be a better choice from the South's standpoint.

"Understand me," Sanders said, "I raised no objections to Sen. Humphrey. But I said that I believed McCarthy was not as well known and his views were not as well known in the South and that he might be a better candidate."

McCarthy, a Roman Catholic, has been regarded as one of the top contenders for second place on the ticket. He and Humphrey have paralleling strong views in favor of civil rights, but Humphrey's have been well publicized and McCarthy's have not.

Every maneuver at this convention has pointed toward a Johnson effort to placate dissident forces and emerge with his first presidential nomination with a relatively united party behind him.

Tonight, the convention is expected to give shouting approval of what in its essentials is a middle-of-the-road platform promising sturdy accomplishments toward peace and prosperity but detouring controversial issues such as civil rights.

The Mississippi fight between a white delegation chosen with the understanding it would oppose the national ticket and the Negro-dominated Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party remained to be settled, possibly by a floor vote.

But the hurry over the appearance on the floor at Monday night's session of members of the Alabama delegation who refused to sign a loyalty pledge was not regarded as likely to burgeon into any federal case.

The feeling among convention officials — and this applied to both the Alabama and Mississippi contests — was that there would not be any roll calls so what did it matter who was designated to cast votes that wouldn't be registered?

The civil rights plank, as approved by the platform committee, pledged "fair, effective enforcement" of the 1964 Civil Rights Act without promising to sponsor any new legislation of this type. But the Democrats said "we cannot and will not tolerate lawlessness."

The Republicans had promised in their platform "full implementation and faithful execution" of the law. They also agreed to back "improvements of civil rights statutes adequate to the changing needs of our times."

The Democrats whipped out a plank condemning extremism "including the extremist tactics of such organizations as the Communist party, the Ku Klux Klan and the John Birch Society."

At their San Francisco convention, GOP delegates had staged one of their bitterest battles over the extremism issue and had wound up by not mentioning it in their platform.

Sen. John O. Pastore, the Rhode Islander of Italian extraction who was chosen personally by Johnson for the keynote task, shouted in the keynote ad-

Luci Johnson on Scene at Convention

By FRANCES LEWINE

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Luci Johnson made a whirlwind entry into the convention scene, dancing the frug, walking the Boardwalk and applauding the convention keynote.

The first of the Johnson family to arrive here, 17-year-old Luci sampled lobster and frozen custard Monday and looked over the oceanfront home her family is to occupy.

She seemed to find everything satisfactory and decided to go to work today with friends at the headquarters of Young Citizens for Johnson.

The President's daughter told "Teen-Dems" and Young Citizens anything they could do from "licking envelopes to running errands" would help her father's campaign.

She said she came to pitch in, too, because she realized "my generation has responsibilities." Luci put off the work for a while, though, to look over the sights.

She signed autographs, picked up LBJ buttons and went shopping in two stores along the oceanfront.

Her only purchase — a pair of $6.95 rope and leather sandals, size 6, medium.

They probably will come in handy on the campaign job today. A teen-worker advised the President's daughter to "wear flat shoes and a dirty dress" when she reported for headquarters duty.

Luci was supposed to wait until Wednesday to come here with her mother and sister, Lynda, 20. But she begged to come ahead and flew in to open the Young Democrat's headquarters and attend their dance, where she demonstrated her prowess in doing the frug, a version of the twist in which she excels.

Wearing coat and dress of pale blue to match her eyes with a pert white bow on her black hair, Luci climaxed the day by taking a front row seat in the presidential box at the convention's opening session and applauding the speakers.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Two new bases for medium-range missiles are being built in Cuba, the Sentinels of Liberty, an exile organization, said today.

Both are on the north coast of Oriente Province, according to the organization, which claims dress that in the November election the people will say: "We need you, President Johnson." Pastore told a frequently applauding audience that filled most of the oversized hall that Democrats must accept the challenge to maintain the "showpiece of partnership, progress and leadership" he said had been developed in the Kennedy-Johnson years in the White House.

Tecing off on Republican nominee Barry Goldwater, Pastore said that "the sanity of America is the security of the world."

"What does the Republican candidate choose to have anything mean at any given moment?" he demanded. "The world cannot wait until Saturday to learn what he meant on Monday. The man in the White House has to be understood the first time. For him there is no second choice."

domestic flights but flies to points throughout the world from New York, Miami, Chicago, Washington, Seattle, Wash., Portland, Ore., San Francisco, Los Angeles and Houston, Tex.

The union said the 2,700 employees it represents at Cape Kennedy, Fla., would take no part in the strike. The union has a no-strike agreement with the federal government affecting missile site workers. The Cape Kennedy union members work on launching pads, fueling missiles and on maintenance.

Also unaffected, the union said, will be charter flights for the Military Air Transport Service.

The negotiations broke down after a new offer by Pan American which the union said "wasn't very good."

In addition to the wage increase, the union's demands include reduction of the work week from 40 to 37½ hours, three weeks vacation after five years service instead of the present 10 years service and improved insurance and pension benefits.

Average wages are now $3.31 an hour for mechanics, $2.55 for ground service personnel, $2.83 for port stewards who handle food and other provisioning of planes and $475 monthly for flight stewards, stewardesses and pursers.

statutes to meet changing needs and any additional measures necessary to prevent unlawful denial of voting rights. The Democrats made no mention of new civil rights legislation.

The Democratic platform strongly condemns lawlessness "whether used to deny equal rights or obtain equal rights" and repudiates use of racial quotas in employment.

Also pleasing to Southerners on the platform committee was the rejection of a plank calling for enforcement of the 14th Amendment's provision for reducing a state's representation in the House in proportion to the number of its qualified citizens denied the right to vote.

This part of the platform, which will be submitted to the party convention Tuesday night, also calls for revision of the immigration laws "to eliminate the discriminatory provisions which base admission upon national origins."

The platform also pledges support of legislation toward full equality of opportunity for women as well as men and to strive "to eliminate discrimination against older Americans, especially in their employment."

This section of the platform which officials said was approved by voice vote, also declares the party's concern "not only with people's right to be free but also with their ability to use their freedom."

The committee was attempting to put the final polish on a plank condemning extremism "including the extremist tactics of such organizations as the Communist party, Ku Klux Klan and the John Birch society."

Prices for hogs reached $20 at Chicago and Indianapolis and $19.25 at Omaha Monday. Prime steers brought $28.50 at Chicago, $27.50 at Omaha and $27 at Indianapolis.

Cleo Churns for Collision With Cuba

KINGSTON, Jamaica (AP) — Leaving Haiti behind, Hurricane Cleo churned on today for a brush with Jamaica and a possible collision with Cuba.

Jamaican weathermen said Cleo is showing remarkable similarity to last year's Hurricane Flora, which lightly touched Jamaica and then hit Cuba with devastating force, killing more than 1,000 persons.

Havana radio said residents have begun evacuating Cuba's Oriente Province.

The Kingston Weather Bureau said Cleo's 140-mile-an-hour winds were slowed to 110 miles an hour by the mountains of Haiti, but are expected to build up again between Jamaica and Cuba.

Although the full force of the hurricane is expected to skirt this former British island, Jamaicans were warned to prepare for gales and possibly hurricane force winds. Above nor-

"A second thought on first aid"

We're constantly amazed at the number of children who cut, scrape and bruise themselves within sight (and sound) of our pharmacy.

We do a big business in antiseptics, bandages, and other first-aid items. Same everywhere, probably. But sometimes we wonder if people don't depend too much on first aid—neglect proper medical attention. If there's the slightest question in your mind following what appears to be minor injuries, see your physician. First aid has definite limitations. You can only be sure of proper medical care by seeing your doctor. A prompt visit can save a half dozen later.

CHATTER

By "Bill"

Every once in a while, we stop short and wonder where the time has gone and is going. Honestly, one day you are trying to keep the grass cut and the next, you are planning to rake leaves. In spite of the fact we would have liked another month of lazy Summer weather, Fall is here.

I will be in Dallas for Holiday Market this week. For as you know, it is only about seventeen and one-half weeks until Christmas! That is what the calendar says; and it also says that school will be starting, that blouse and millinery weeks are coming up and certain people are celebrating Leggons in Truth Week.

Well, to be truthful about it, we are all for these things. We have the smartest blouses and skirts to be worn to school, or anywhere else for that matter, that you have ever seen!

You will want more than one of Fredrick French flannel skirts, to say nothing of the Country Set tweeds. We bought the black and white; it will simply go with everything. And, when it comes to colors, they were more beautiful. Select your skirts, blouses and sweaters while we have so many. Skirts, $8.95 up; sweaters, $7.95 up; blouses, $4.95 up.

You will like that hat... especially the large brimmed velvet... wear it with your sheath knit dress or your Crestmoor knit suit. The price is only $10.00 but you will look and feel like a million! We have little hats and big ones, suede, velvet, felt and ribbon... all for your choosing.

To tell the truth, we have more things than we can get in this column-ad... so... we invite you to shop today, see for yourself, remember... the place is Ray's Style Shoppe, Hope's House of Fashion.

"DEAR ABBY"

START TRAINING YOURSELF!

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: I go with a guy who is real good in sports. I don't have much trouble with him (keeping him in his place, I mean) while he is in training, but when he is not in training, he is murder. He's as strong as an ox and won't listen to reason. How can I make him keep his distance without losing him?

JACK'S GIRL
Dear Girl: Take a course in Judo and throw him off balance.

Dear Abby: If a man is left a widower, and decides to remarry after waiting a decent amount of time, must he invite the parents of his late wife to the second wedding? If not, must he inform them of it? This is an especially touchy situation because there are children by the first wife. Thank you in advance.

THE MAN
Dear Man: He should invite them unless they are the kind of people who would be saddened by the revived memories. In any case, he should inform the parents of his late wife of his intentions to remarry. And he should do it before someone else does.

Dear Abby: My whole life changed two weeks ago when they brought my child home from the playground and told me that he had had some kind of a "fit." We took him to the doctor immediately, and after several tests, the doctor said our son has epilepsy, but he didn't know how severe it was, or how often he would have seizures. I have cried and prayed and spent sleepless nights. We've never had anything like this in our family before, Abby. What causes this? Is it contagious? Will he outgrow it? Can it be cured? Someone told me that in some states epileptics cannot marry, and other states they must be "sterilized" so as not to pass this on to any children. We are afraid our doctor isn't telling us the whole truth. Please help us.

DESPERATE PARENTS
Dear Desperate: One out of every 100 Americans suffers from epilepsy. It is not contagious. Today, treated by modern medical and surgical techniques, 50 per cent of all persons suffering from epilepsy become seizure free. Another 30 percent enjoy a reduction in the number of attacks. For a free, informative booklet on epilepsy, write to The American Epilepsy Federation, 73 Tremont Street, Boston 8, Mass. When you know the facts you'll no longer be desperate.

Confidential To "Just Call Me Al": ALL women over 45 need a little appreciation. But they need that little so much.

President of Viet Nam Has Resigned

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh gave up the title of president and his dictatorial powers today under the angry demands of students and Buddhists for an end to military rule. He was expected to stay on, however, as the actual chief of the U.S.-backed government.

The 37-year-old strong man may resume the premiership he dropped after the revolutionary military council elected him to the presidency 10 days ago. Or he might have himself re-elected president of a revamped regime. He retains command of South Viet Nam's armed forces.

Jubilant student leaders told The Associated Press that Khanh had agreed to hold a new election for chief of state and that the military council would then be dissolved.

Student leader Ton Thah Tue said he had been in telephone contact with Khanh at the presidential office building, and Khanh said he was willing to:

— Revoke the charter he promulgated Aug. 16 that gave him sweeping powers.

— Have the military council hold a new election for the chief of state — conceivably re-electing Khanh.

Dissolve the council after the election, and set up some new form of government.

An aide in Khanh's office said that this version was essentially correct. It does not mean, the aide said, that Khanh has resigned his power as chief of Viet Nam.

The deputy premier for economy, Nguyen Xuan Oanh, told The Associated Press that the new move means Khanh no longer is either president or premier. The military revolutionary council will be called into an urgent session tonight, he said, to elect a new chief.

Khanh probably will be re-named premier, Oanh said. The junta then will dissolve itself, and a new junta, comprising civilians as well as military men, will be organized.

As the news came from the presidential office building, a cheer rose from a mass of demonstrators outside. They embraced each other and waved their banners wildly.

The government conceded nearly every demand posed by the political groups, students, Buddhists and military factions opposing Khanh.

The government pledged it would create mobile field courts to deliver "instant justice" to corrupt officials and elements of the defunct Can Lao party of the late President Ngo Dinh Diem.

"By some means or another," Khanh told The Associated Press, "a ruling council with the same powers as the present junta but made up of civilians will be created. The civilians will be picked from a broad spectrum of political parties and groups so as to be completely representative."

The government also abrogated the national constitution promulgated by Khanh nine days ago, which gave him sweeping powers.

The situation in Saigon was confused but the danger of immediate rioting in the capital apparently passed with the government statement.

Today's demonstration was the biggest against the government since the founding of the Vietnamese state in 1954.

The aggressive, goateed career soldier proclaimed himself premier a few weeks after he seized power in a bloodless coup last Jan. 30. He replaced Gen. Minh, the popular Buddhist who had led the overthrow of the hated Diem regime three months earlier.

When the Gulf of Tonkin crisis broke early this month, Khanh decreed a state of national emergency. On Aug. 16 his military junta promulgated a constitution giving Khanh dictatorial powers in a national emergency and elevating him to president.

Within days, students and Buddhists took their protests against Khanh into the streets. The Buddhists demanded religious freedom, the students demanded Khanh's ouster and restoration of civilian rule.

A few hours earlier Khanh

Miss U. S. Beauty Pageant Opens

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. (AP) — The week-long Miss United States beauty pageant opens tonight minus five lovelies.

Pageant officials disqualified them because they do not live in the states they represented — Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Connecticut and Rhode Island.

Robert Schaub, the pageant attorney, said all five lived in Massachusetts. Winner of the Miss United States title will be selected Friday.

had offered to revise the new constitution, which gave him dictatorial powers, in an effort to halt the wave of student rioting in key cities.

In Saigon and elsewhere, a shrill anti-American overtone had been added to the protests against Khanh. The demonstrators accused the United States of supporting Khanh's assumption of the presidency and promulgation of the constitution 10 days ago.

Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor and Deputy Ambassador U. Alexis Johnson held an emergency postmidnight conference with Vietnamese officials today. Taylor met Monday with Khanh.

Today in Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Census Bureau says there is at least one television set in 93 of every 100 American households and one family in six has two or more sets.

Two years ago, a similar bureau survey showed at least one television set in 90 per cent of all U.S. homes.

WASHINGTON (AP) - The use of nuclear energy to remove salt from sea water and generate electricity at the same time will be discussed at the third annual international conference on peaceful uses of atomic energy at Geneva Aug. 31 to Sept. 9.

It could also form part of the agenda for an international symposium on water desalination to be held in Washington Oct. 30 next year and to which the United States has invited all 14 nations with which it has diplomatic relations.

WASHINGTON (AP) - Scientists have discovered an undersea mountain almost as tall as California's Mt. Whitney but its peak is still 3,800 feet below the surface of the Pacific Ocean.

The Coast and Geodetic Survey announced Monday the discovery of 175 miles south of Wake Island. Its ship, Pioneer, found the mountain while on a six-month scientific expedition to the Indian Ocean.

The underground mountain rises about 14,130 feet above the ocean floor compared with the 14,995 feet above sea level for Mt. Whitney.

Continuation Is Always Ticklish

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. (AP) - "These continuations are always ticklish," said Frank Froehling.

"Well it's your serve to start," said Arthur Ashe.

"Pleasant dreams - if you can get to sleep."

With that Froehling and his partner in the National Doubles Tennis Championships, Charley Pasarell, left Ashe and teammate Billy Bond, presumably to sleep before the resumption of their key quarter-final match today.

The fourth-seeded team of Froehling, from Miami, and Pasarell of Santruce, P.R., and the sixth-seeded tandem of Ashe of Richmond Va., and Bond, a Jolla, Calif., left Thursday at 9:30 in the fifth set.

Froehling and Pasarell won the first two sets 6-2, 6-4, then Ashe and Bond fought back to take two, 6-4, 12-10. Darkness ended play.

The winners will move into Saturday's semifinals against the top seeds, Chuck McKinley of San Antonio, Tex., and Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., who passed their first genuine test at the Longwood Cricket Club Thursday.

McKinley and Ralston eliminated the seventh-seeded pair of Cliff Buchholz of St. Louis and Butch Newman of San Antonio, 6-3, 4-6, 6-1, 6-3. Buchholz and Newman had beaten the U.S. Davis Cuppers earlier this year.

THE STORY: The young woman who is seeking the help of Frank Ives is evasive when he meets her. She seems to be helpless and in trouble.

VIII
The woman's lifted hands dropped and spread at her sides, as though, Ives felt with a rush of sympathy, she despaired of ever getting across the complex enormity of her plight with such futile things as words. She certainly looked as though she was in over her head.

"Don't you have any kin?" Frank Ives asked, trying to be helpful.

"I couldn't talk to them!" Her eyes considered him dreadfully. A bleak shiver shook her. "I've got to go," she gasped, whirling.

"Wait!" He caught her arm. She was stronger than he'd have guessed. Jerking free, still panting, she looked around wildly. "I can't talk now!"

"But you said..." "Tuesday then. At the Stag Creek line camp—about noon, if I can make it." And she was gone, gobbled up in the welter of shifting branches, lost in a gloom that was blacker than ink.

Ives swore. He didn't know where she was going or where she had come from, who she was—scarcely one thin girl he hadn't known before!

Well yes, he knew one thing. She was frightened. Half out of her wits—that much had been plain enough. And if she'd come from town she wasn't going back by way of this bridge. She must have ridden, he reckoned.

He climbed into his saddle. No use trying to find her now. Better see if he could locate French could probably tell him about her. French could answer a lot of things for him. If he were minded to, Ives grimly qualified.

It must, he thought, glancing up at the stars, be leaning hard on three o'clock. The melancholy charm of the desert range was lost on Ives for his mind was much too preoccupied with thinking and questions having to do with that girl to give more than token attention to his surroundings.

Guests of the Secretary of State

MIDWEST DAIRY, THIS YEAR'S champs of the Little League, were treated to a trip to Little Rock last Friday to see the Arkansas Travelers play Oklahoma City. The tickets were compliments of Kelly Bryant, Secretary of State.

GOP Leaders Try to Stop Miss Luce

NEW YORK (AP) — New York State's two Republican national committee members fought to stop Clare Boothe Luce's entry as Conservative party candidate against Republican Sen. Kenneth B. Keating and possibly Democrat Robert F. Kennedy.

The two committee members wired National Chairman Dean Burch, threatening to withdraw support of the national ticket headed by Sen. Barry Goldwater if Goldwater's supporters in New York continue to back Mrs. Luce and 58 Conservative candidates for lesser offices.

In Buffalo, Rep. William E. Miller, Republican vice presidential candidate, said neither he nor Goldwater controls the Conservative party.

"They presume that Sen. Goldwater and I can control the Conservative party and we can't," said Miller, in a hospital interview. He is undergoing a three-day physical checkup.

Kennedy's still unannounced candidacy gained momentum at the Democratic National Convention in Atlantic City, N.J.

Kennedy resigned as a delegate from Massachusetts, obviously preparing to enter the New York race. His announcement is expected Tuesday.

Mayor Robert F. Wagner and United Nations Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson made statements at the convention backing Kennedy. Wagner endorsed him last Friday, but evidently wanted to knock down reports that his support was reluctant.

Wagner indicated that Kennedy's announcement will be made at Gracie Mansion, the Mayor's official residence. "He'll be at my side," Wagner said. The Mayor came back to keep a speaking engagement then returned to Atlantic City.

Rep. Samuel S. Stratton of Amsterdam apparently was still planning to fight Kennedy for the nomination at the state convention on Sept. 1. A group of Stratton's upstate supporters in the Liberal party met in Saratoga Springs, but failed to say

May Revive National Air Racing

By BILL STALL
Associated Press Writer

RENO, Nev. (AP)—There's a right time for everything, says stocky, blue-eyed Bill Stall. "All at once, this seems to be the right time for air racing."

Stall, 40, had been thinking about revival of the national championship air races almost since they were abandoned at Cleveland more than a decade ago. Until the past two years, he was unable to get anything more than moral support.

"Suddenly, everybody's interested," says Stall, a Reno catman and former world champion speedboat driver.

On Sept. 12, engines will roar into life at dawn at Clearwater, Fla. Souped-up World War II fighters take off for the Reno to open nine days of racing, aerobatic competition, sailplane soaring and exhibitions in the national championship air races of 1964.

The previous races folded for several reasons. Civilization was creeping in on likely racing areas and creating hazards that sometimes turned into tragic accidents. Aviation authorities tightened requirements.

Military jets began to dominate, Stall adds. Then came a rule that only one jet could fly around the tight, closed pylon course at one time. The winner was determined on the basis of time.

"We've analyzed all the gripes of the old air races — not that they weren't great. But we're trying to upgrade this as much as we can."

Jets will be on the shelf at the 1964 races — for inspection and exhibition, but not for racing. This, combined with a spacious natural desert racing area, will allow seven planes to race around the 8½-mile unlimited course at once.

"These planes are going to go as fast as the jets could around this course, maybe faster," Stall says.

The race course is in Spanish Springs Valley, an early-day ranch area 15 miles northeast of Reno's tourist accommodations and casinos.

The crowd will watch from grandstands in the center of the course.

Prize money will total nearly $50,000.

They will buck that party's probable nomination of Kennedy.

The Republican-Conservative tug-of-war over Mrs. Luce, former Republican congresswoman from Connecticut and ambassador to Italy, held the spotlight.

The telegram to Burch was signed by National Committee member George L. Hinnan, one of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's closest associates, and Dorothy McHugh, the national committee woman.

Burch said in Washington he had no immediate comment on the telegram.

A highly placed source in New York State said Rockefeller saw the telegram before it was sent and approved its content and tone.

Bobcats Culled Down to Hard Core of Players

By CARTER HARDAGE
Hope Star Sports Editor

Going into their second week of real practice, Coach Alan Howard's Bobcats are down to a hard core of twenty-one veterans.

The locals have trimmed their ranks considerably with dropouts, and still further with assorted injuries.

Quarterback Sam Strong is out for at least six weeks with a broken wrist, and Gene Thompson is sidelined with a heart murmur.

Coach Howard is nevertheless hopeful, stating that "we're interested in quality, not quantity."

He also added, "we're ready to put everything together, polish it up, and make it look like a real Bobcat football team."

When asked what he was working toward, he said, "We play them one at a time. Texas-Kansas is first, and that's who we're working on now."

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Lewiston, Idaho, winner of a first round game in the American Legion Little World Series Monday, could probably qualify as the coolest team in the tournament.

The Idaho boys opened the series wearing knee-length shorts, knee-high socks and blue T-shirts.

Manager Dwight Church said the team has started doubleheaders in Lewiston with the temperature 110 degrees at 6 p.m. "We decided to look for a cooler way to play ball," Church said.

SWEETIE PIE

"Why, Billy... you SHOULDN'T have!"

Carty Is Hot, Braves Wallop Leading Phils

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Rico Carty of the Milwaukee Braves admits he was a bit over-anxious about breaking into organized baseball.

He signed with just about every club in the Dominican Republic. And with San Francisco. And Cincinnati. And he had his runaway pen in hand, ready to sign with St. Louis, when Milwaukee protested.

But the Braves haven't protested since.

A 24-year-old outfielder making a bid for Rookie of the Year honors in the National League Carty slammed five straight hits — a homer, three doubles and a single — as the Braves walloped the first-place Philadelphia Phillies 12-9 Monday night.

Carty has hit like that in the Braves' chain ever since they took his ink well away by appealing to the late George Trautman, then the president of the minors.

Seems that Carty — "I was just a kid and I didn't realize what I was doing" — had signed with the Estrellas club in the Dominican Republic before wielding his pen for the Giants and Reds. The Estrellas club had sold Carty to the Braves.

Against the Phillies, Carty doubled in the first, singled in the second, homered in the fourth and doubled in the fifth and the seventh, lifting his average from .312 to .323 with the spurt while bringing his home run output to 13 and his runs batted in total to 56.

The loss trimmed the Phillies' lead to 6½ games over the San Francisco Giants, who broke a tie for second place with Cincinnati by defeating the Los Angeles Dodgers 4-2. In other NL action, St. Louis whipped Pittsburgh 5-1 and Houston blanked the Chicago Cubs 2-0.

The Chicago White Sox, meanwhile, lost an opportunity to gain ground on American League-leading Baltimore, falling two games behind the Orioles after a 4-3 loss to Minnesota in the only game on the schedule.

Carty led a 16-hit Milwaukee attack against five Philadelphia pitchers. Hank Aaron chipped in with his 22nd homer and three runs batted in while Eddie Mathews collected three hits.

Wes Covington supplied most of the fireworks for the Phillies, driving in six runs with two homers and a pair of doubles. Clay Dalrymple also homered for Philadelphia.

The Giants put it away against the Dodgers in the first inning with a four-run outburst helped along by Tommy Davis' error on a Willie Mays liner. That produced one run, a score. Hal Woodeshick pitched grounders by Orlando Cepeda drove in the second and Jim Bruce hurt his back.

Constellation Likely Selection

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — Constellation has moved a step closer to selection as the yacht to defend the America's Cup next month, beating American Eagle again to remain undefeated in the final trials.

Observers feel a Constellation victory in today's race will prompt the race committee of the New York Yacht Club to choose her over American Eagle.

Constellation, with Bob Bavier at the helm, scored a 4 minute and 15 second victory over American Eagle Monday, giving her a 6-0 record in the final trials.

Baseball Player's Wife Succumbs

TRENTON, Mo. (AP) — Mrs. Burleigh Grimes, 56, wife of the Hall of Fame baseball pitcher, died of a heart attack Monday at the family farm four miles southwest of Trenton. She had not been ill prior to the attack.

Her husband, named to the Hall of Fame last year, is a scout for the Baltimore Orioles.

Mutilled Twice

William Bligh, English Admiral and captain of the H.M.S. Bounty during the famous mutiny, was involved in another mutiny when he later became governor of New South Wales, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Hart finished things up with a two-run homer.

The Dodgers scored their only runs in the first on a homer by Willie Davis, then were shut out the rest of the way by Jim Duffalo. Duffalo, who hadn't pitched a complete game since his first major league start in 1961, allowed only six hits.

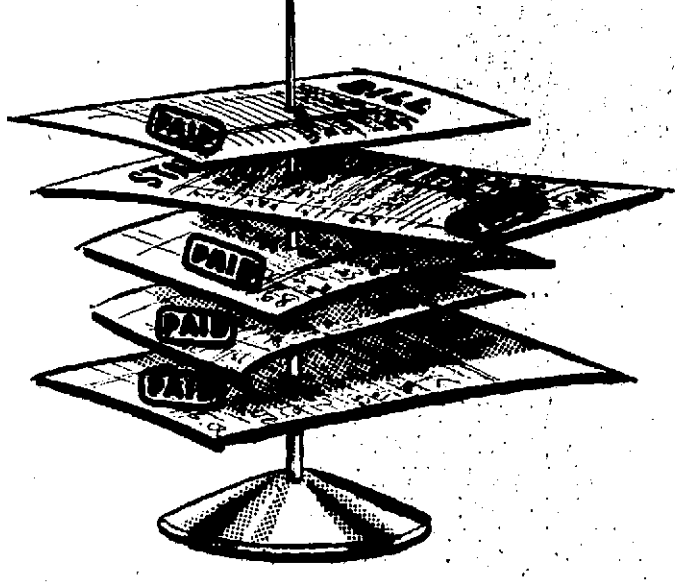

The Twins scored twice in the second inning against the White Sox with the aid of an error by Al Weis, and added two more in the third on singles by Rich Rollins, Tony Oliva and Zoilo Versalles. Then they held on as the White Sox muffed their opportunities.

The White Sox had the potential tying runs on in the sixth, but Jim Kaat picked Don Buford off first to end the inning. Chicago then closed to within one run in the eighth, but reliever Al Worthington got Moose Skowron and Buford on short files with the tying run on third.

Bill White hit a two-run homer for the Cardinals in the eighth and Ken Boyer followed with another homer, taking the pressure off Bob Gibson. Gibson was working on a 2-1 lead at that point and wound up with a six-hitter while striking out 12.

Pitcher Bob Bruce, who allowed only two hits, got the Colts winning rally started in the eighth inning with a single off Lou Burdette. Walt Bond's single and an error on the play by Billy Williams let both runs score. Hal Woodeshick pitched the ninth for Houston after drove in the second and Jim Bruce hurt his back.

UNBEATABLE

PAID Over 62,000,000 Americans agree that when it comes to paying hospital and doctor bills, you can't beat the help you get from Blue Cross and Blue Shield!

Here in Arkansas, over 325,000 Arkansans have chosen Blue Cross-Blue Shield to help them pay hospital and doctor bills. Last year alone, over $12,500,000 was paid for the care of Arkansas members of Blue Cross-Blue Shield.

Since you choose a health care plan for help paying bills, doesn't it make sense to choose the plan that does the most? In Arkansas, Blue Cross-Blue Shield is unbeatable for the help it provides paying bills.

When you need the benefits it provides, the small amount you pay for Blue Cross-Blue Shield dues is the best bargain in your budget.
